REASONS FOR INSURING.

1. It is the surest way to prevent the household loaf from being buried with the household head.

2. It helps to rid the community of pauperism and its expenses, and of crime incident to poverty.

3. It brings relief to the sorrows of bereavement and brightens the otherwise desolated pathway.

4. It gives the permanence of an estate or of a fortune to those depending upon their daily toil.

5. It is the safest of all investments, as it thrives even upon the ruins of ordinary financial concerns.

6. It is a profitable use of funds, yielding, besides security, better returns than most investments.

7. It is a property not exposed to the demands of creditors, but protected by law for one's heirs.

8. It brings ready money in a minute, and just at that moment when it is most timely and welcome.

9. It affords all the conveniences of saving institutions, and also much larger pecuniary returns.

10. It benefits the assured by promoting industry and economy, and prolongs life by relieving it from anxiety.

11. It is not just as well to put it off, for health may be impaired, or life may suddenly end.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A public meeting was held in the Carrot River Agricultural Hall, Kinitino, at the call of W. F. Meyers, M.L.A., to address his constituents on the various matters respecting this district.

Mr. S. Jackson was called to the chair by the meeting, and introduced the speaker with a few very spicy remarks.

Mr. Meyers then read a resolution adopted by the Assembly, which gave a brief insight into what work the Assembly were undertaking.

A number of questions were asked and answered with reference to the expenditure of his appropriation, and in reply to a letter from Mayor S. J. Donaldson, which he requested to be ventilated at a public meeting re grant in aid of Prince Albert Immigration Committee, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"That our M. L. A. do not subscribe any monies to the Immigration Committee of Prince Albert."

A vote of thanks to our representative and the chairman brought the meeting to a close.

COMMUNICATIONS.

OUR TOWN CONSTABLE.

To the Editor of the Times.

SIR,—Is it the duty of the newly appointed town constable to walk his beat or loiter about the hotels and restaurants where his presence is not required, and more of an annoyance than a benefit to the guests? We, as ratepayers, would like to know what we are paying this man for.

LITERARY NOTES.

The April number of the Manitolan

Winnipeg's new magazine, is to hand and is a genuine surprise. It is enlarged to 52 pages, printed as usual on the best book paper, contains several illustrations, and bound in a handsome colored antique cover, and for neatness and general appearance is above the average. Among the excellent articles which go to make up this number are, "The waterways of the Northwest," by H. N. Ruttan, C.E., who sets forth the advantages of an outlet by way of the Hudson's Bay, together with interesting statistics on the same. "The Red River Expedition of 1870, by an officer of the force is continued and presents an interesting chapter in Northwest history. A sketch of the Life of the late Rev. Dr. Lane, by D. W. McKerchar, M.A., will interest the many friends of the late talented divine. The opening chapters of two serial stories entitled "The Shadow of a Wrong" and "Beatrice Cameron," by local writers, will prove very interesting, the latter story especially, the scenes of which are locally laid. The Notes and Comments on Current Events are as bright and pointed as ever, while Literary Notes and Reviews, Publisher's Notes, a trip "From Western Ontario to Manitoba in 1867," and the Checker Department, conducted by Ed Kelly, complete one of the best numbers yet issued. We are pleased to see the Manitolan meeting with such encouragement, and judging by the increased amount of advertising it is now in a flourishing condition. Everyone interested in the Canadian Northwest should possess a copy.
Published by the Manitoban Pub. Co., Winnipeg, Man., at the low price of $1 per year.

The ice on the river is covered with water. It is reported that a team of horses belonging to Mr. R. Deacon went through the ice, but were rescued.

The finest span of draught horses, a bay and a black, in town may be seen in one of the stables at the Barracks. They are cared for by Const. John Cowan, who takes great pride in the noble animals.
Const. Cowan is the owner of a fine herd of cattle on a ranch in the Shell River district.

The action of the town constable in summoning a youth for blaspheming on the streets will no doubt prove a warning to others. Visitors to our town have frequently expressed their abhorrence at the disgusting and coarse language indulged in by those who should know better. Swearers, beware! Pete is on your track.

About fourteen horses owned by French settlers arrived in town last week, and are stabled in one of the vacant buildings at the Barracks, which was kindly lent for the occasion by the Government.
Some very fine draught horses from the east are among the number. The owners are located for the present in a dwelling in the west end. They will probably settle in the vicinity of the Birch Hills
district.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1892.

The Montreal Witness asks its fellow-Liberals some exceedingly pertinent questions regarding the treaty-making fad which Mr. Mills has been nursing in default of something better to do. These questions are worth recording:

"If Canada secures the power of concluding her own treaties, will she possess the necessary strength and military and naval means of enforcing their observance or even of rendering it necessary for foreign powers to treat with her in all matters? If she has not the necessary strength and means, does she expect, in case she obtains the treaty making power that Great Britain will enforce the treaties? Would Great Britain be willing to enforce treaties which would not be British treaties? Would Canada be willing to bear such a fair share of the cost of the defence of the Empire as would entitle her to the use of the army and navy to defend and enforce her rights as a treaty-making nation? Would Canada's present position be bettered if she secured the right of making her own treaties? Does not Great Britain at present insist upon such conditions as Canada deems necessary in her interests, allowing Canadians to negotiate the treaties, which she merely ratifies and enforces? Would Canada like to see Newfoundland in a position to make such a treaty as would result in drawing her into closer relations, perhaps into political union, with the United States? What would have been the result in regard to the Behring sea sealing dispute supposing Canada had been a separate treaty making country with no claim upon England for the defence of her rights? Would the United States have taken any notice of Canada's protest against her seizure of the sealing schooners in Behring sea? Would the United States have even deigned to discuss the basis of an arbitration on the subject if there had been no British ironclads at Canada's back?"

The Dominion government has acted wisely in refusing to grant rebates of canal tolls on grain which to any extent passes into foreign territory before reaching Montreal. The demand for a rebate on grain transhipped at Ogdensburg was put forward in the interest of a single forwarding company. The rebate was calculated to benefit that company alone. But it would inflict deadly injury on the whole of the Canadian inland marine. In the end we believe it would injure Montreal also. The time is not one in which Canada should grant favors to the United States except on getting something equally valuable in return. The Washington government is protecting every United States interest. It is right in doing so. If the protection to those interests causes loss to Canadians the Washington people do not care. They do not particularly desire to injure Canada, but they do desire to build up their own country, and if that building up has injurious effect on Canada, so much the worse for Canada. We must follow the excellent example set us. We must protect Canadian interests. We do not wish to injure the United States. But if the protection of our shipping shall injuriously affect their shipping, so much the worse for the United States. And now may we not trust that the government will push the work on the St. Lawrence canals with all possible vigor? At present navigation is seriously hampered, the trade of the St. Lawrence fails to reach its proper proportions, and the government gets no revenue from the canals. When a fourteen foot channel shall be completed from the upper lakes to the sea the tide of traffic which will pour down the St. Lawrence will make Montreal prosperous, enrich Canadian vessel owners, and pay interest on the cost of the canals. It is better to push the work through to early completion than to permit it to run on through an indefinite period of delay, discouragement and international complications. —Spectator.

Some idea of the intermingling of races or nationalities that has gone to the making of the United States as it is to-day may be gathered from some statistics collected. Before 1820 no record was kept of immigration. It has, however, been estimated that about a quarter of a million of new comers settled in the country from the close of the revolutionary struggle to that date. From 1820 to 1855 inclusive the arrivals from over the sea numbered 4,212,624, while from 1856 to 1890 (also inclusive) 11,188,556 immigrants took up their abode temporarily or permanently in the territory of the Republic. These data make a total of 15,401,180 immigrants from the founding of the nation to the year 1890. The nationalities that make up this total and their respective shares in it are as follows: Germany, 4,504,128; Ireland, 3,481,074; England, 2,430,380; Sweden and Norway, 925,031; Austria Hungary, 434,488; Italy, 388,558; France, 366,346; Russia, 328,538; Switzerland, 171,269; Denmark, 142,517. The ages of the immigrants arriving in 1881-90 (5,241,613) show that of the whole immigration 21.4 per cent consisted of persons under fifteen years; 68.1 between fifteen and forty; 10.5 over forty. As to occupation they stood thus:—Professionals, 27,006; skilled, 540,411; miscellaneous, 2,079,135; not stated, 116,157; without occupation, 2,483,904; males 3,205,911; females, 2,035,702. To the foregoing must be added a total (from 1821 to 1890) of 290,655 Chinese and 73,672 Japanese. Of these many doubtless returned home. Though the bulk of the whites was British, the Dutch, Scandinavian, German, French and Spanish elements added to the foregoing would still further reveal the multiplicity of stocks that have gone to the building of the Union.

Mr. Peter McLaughlin, father-in-law of W. C. McKay, is very ill. Owing to his advanced age, grave fears are entertained as to his recovery.

Mr. J. W. Davidson, an influential resident of Walworth County, South Dakota, is at the Leland House. Mr. Davidson represents a large number of farmers of the aforesaid county, and seems to be favorably impressed with the prospects of this district.

To new settlers, farmers and others—Auctioneer Buckley has received instructions from Mr. Chas. Woodman to sell by public auction, on Wednesday, May 4th, 1892, the whole of his Livery outfit, consisting of horses, harness, single and double buggies, buckboards and other rigs etc. For further particulars see large posters.

In Our Midst.

"Mike" leads all competitors.

Two car loads of set lens' effects came in by last evening's train.

Court Saskatchewan, I.O.F., will meet on Friday evening, April 29th.

Ladies' Spring Jackets and Blouses at F. C. Baker's.

Mrs. Cullen and child returned last week from a visit to Qu'Appelle.

Where did you get that Hat? At F. C. Baker's.

Mr. W. V. MacIsaac has recovered from his recent illness, and is able to attend to his duties.

Ladies, the Dress Goods at F. C. Baker's are worthy of inspection.

W. C. McKay met with a painful accident last week by cutting his hand on the sharp edge of a nail.

Mr. D. H. Macdowall, M.P., and Mrs. Macdowall arrived from Ottawa on Tuesday evening.

For the best assortment of Prints, Flannelette, and Gingham, go to F. C. Baker's.

Mr. John Stewart was elected by acclamation yesterday as Councillor to fill the vacancy in No. 4 Ward.

The little boy Wheeler, who had his leg broken some time ago, is able to get around with the aid of crutches.

A nice lot of Men's Spring Overcoats, Rubber Coats, and Ladies' Gossamers have been received at F. C. Baker's.

Mr. Weatherby is selling out and preparing to move across the plains to Montana.

A complete assortment of Men's, Youth's, Boys' and children's Clothing at F. C. Baker's, at prices to suit everybody.

Messrs. Jackson and Orr, new comers, have rented Mr. W. Plaxton's farm for a year. In the meantime they will look up suitable locations to homestead.

The new immigration sheds, situated on the west side of the station, are being rapidly put together, and will soon be ready for occupation.

M. C. O'Connor's patrons may now obtain a hot, cold or shower bath at a moment's notice. The condensed water used is superior to rain water for bathing purposes. Next door to Betts & Gwynne.

Rev. Canon Flett, Inspector of Schools, speaks highly of the reception he received at Regina by his colleagues, and the Government officials.

Mr. J. A. Mustard, B.A. formerly Principal of Prince Albert High School, has carried off the $50 scholarship in Systematic Theology at Knox College, Toronto.

D. J. Campbell, one of the old timers, who went east last fall, returned here by last evening's train. Dunc., evidently can't remain away, and we are glad to see him back.

Mr. T. O. Davis returned from Duck Lake last evening, where he had been re-establishing a branch store of his general business. Mr. G. Fournier is in charge of the new venture.

Contractor Knox is pushing work on the new Starforth House. It will be ready for plastering in a few days. Mr. Starforth expects to occupy the building about the 24th of May.

Decision was given in the Boucher-Nolin election case this week, Mr. Justice McGuire holding that Nolin was never entitled to the seat and giving the seat to Boucher, with costs on the defendant. The costs will amount to over $700.

Mr. Wm. Galbraith, of the H. B. Co., who went to Winnipeg last week on a business trip, returned home on Saturday.

Mr. Stanley, formerly of Mr. Reid's surveying party, went up to Sturgeon Lake on Saturday last, to act as farm instructor for the Indians on the reserve.

Mr. Ben. Plaxton, another old timer, and a brother of our townsman Mr. W. Plaxton, returned to Prince Albert Saturday last. Mr. Plaxton formerly owned and worked a blacksmith shop in the west end in the good old days. We are pleased to see him back, and we hope to stay.

Many highly instructive facts bearing on the progress of Canadian newspapers appear in a new hand-book of the Canadian Press just issued by A. McKim & Co., Newspaper Advertising Agents, Montreal, to whose enterprise we are indebted for the first Directory of Canadian newspapers that at all approaches completeness.

Arrangements are now completed for the performance of the comic opera, "The Cadet's Holiday," by the Prince Albert Juveniles. The performance takes place on Friday evening next in Saskatchewan Hall; also a matinee on Saturday afternoon. The proceeds go to aid the free library. A good attendance is asked for on both occasions.

The gentlemen in charge of the entertainment in aid of St. George's Society, to take place at the Barracks on the 23rd inst., are making good progress. Everything will be in readiness at the appointed time, and a first-class entertainment is assured. Tickets will be provided to convey those wishing to attend, to and from the barracks.

The annual vestry meeting of St. Alban's church was held on Monday afternoon last. The financial report was read and received, which showed that the parish had at least held its own during the past year. The following gentlemen were appointed office bearers for the present year:—Wardens, Messrs. J. Taylor and J. E. Young. Vestrymen—Messrs. J. E. Sinclair, J. D. Maveety, J. M. R. Neely, J. McKay, A. B. Hearn and T. J. Agnew. Lay Delegates, Messrs. Young and Taylor.

"TRIAL BY JURY."

The Prince Albert Glee Club are to be congratulated on the success of their entertainments given on Monday and Tuesday nights. The people of Prince Albert evidently appreciate the efforts that have been made by the ladies and gentlemen of the Glee Club, for the Saskatchewan Hall was crowded on Monday night, and the greatest interest was taken by the audience throughout the entire performance.

The first part of the programme consisted of songs, quartettes and instrumental music, and was succeeded by the comic opera "Trial by Jury." Miss Hill, as the fair plaintiff was uncommonly good, and received well merited applause throughout the entire piece. The bridesmaids were charming, and it is not surprising that the amorous Judge (Mr. Barwell) was smitten with their individual and collective charms. Mr. Barwell's acting and singing were both equally good and cannot be too highly praised. Mr. Johnson, as the counsel for plaintiff, was very good indeed, and put forward his fair client's claim with due effect, and with the best results; he looked a trifle pale on Monday night, the result, no doubt, of emotion.

Mr. Ross, as the Associate Judge, was a marvel of pantomime "he laid low and said nuff," but his acting was immense, and evidently thought a great deal.

The part of the poor ill-used, sleepy usher was taken by Mr. Clarke in first-class style, and in a decidedly impartial manner.

Mr. Pavier as the heartless, perjured lover, took his part very well indeed, and deserved the applause he received for his rendering of a very difficult and trying part. We regret, however, that he should have been so lost to shame, as to have tried to commit "burglary."

The choruses were well rendered, and the whole performance reflected the greatest credit on all concerned.

Mr. T. E. Parker was a brilliant success as foreman of the Jury, and really did look sympathetically paternal, but the lady, unfortunately, preferred the Judge.

Mr. Cann deserves the greatest praise for the interest and trouble he has taken in managing this affair and bringing it to a successful issue. We only hope the Glee Club will see fit to give a Prince Albert audience a similar treat at no distant date.

"August Flower"

The Hon. J. W. Fennimore is the Sheriff of Kent Co., Del., and lives at Dover, the County Seat and Capital of the State. The sheriff is a gentleman fifty-nine years of age, and this is what he says: "I have used your August Flower for several years in my family and for my own use, and found it does me more good than any other remedy. I have been troubled with what I call Sick Headache. A pain comes in the back part of my head first, and then soon a general headache, until I become sick and vomit. At times, too, I have a fullness after eating, a pressure after eating at the pit of the stomach, and sourness, when food seemed to rise up in my throat and mouth. When I feel this coming on if I take a little August Flower it relieves me, and is the best remedy I have ever taken for it. For this reason I take it and recommend it to others as a great remedy for Dyspepsia, &c."
